In this video, I'll show you how to submit your homework assignments using a grading platform called Codio. When you're ready to submit, scroll to the bottom of the assignment description page and click the button that reads, Begin Submission. You'll see a pop-up that reads, click OK to have your username and email

If you have a question about Codio, feel free to post about it in the discussion forum. To get started, click on the "Show Discussion" button below.
