Course   Discussion   Course Handouts   Progress   Additional Resources   Notes

< Previous   Next >

Quiz 1.1

🔖 Bookmark this page

Problem 1

1 point possible (graded)

We can consider the Internet to be a graph in which:

○ Nodes are people and edges are computers.

○ Nodes are devices and edges are physical or virtual connections

○ Nodes are pieces of content and edges are links between them.

○ Nodes are devices and edges are pieces of data.

| Submit | You have used 0 of 3 attempts | ? Hint | 🖫 Save |

Problem 2

1 point possible (graded)

A Uniform Resource Locator (URL) is:

○ A unique address for a device on the Internet.

○ A piece of software used to find a resource on the World Wide Web.

○ A unique identifier for a resource on the World Wide Web that also specifies the protocol for retrieving it

○ A protocol used for exchanging data on the World Wide Web.

| Submit | You have used 0 of 3 attempts | ? Hint | 🖫 Save |

< Previous   Next >