Academic Integrity

Definitions of Academic Dishonesty:
Activities that have the effect or intention of interfering with education, pursuit of knowledge or fair evaluation of a student's performance are prohibited. Examples of such activities include but are not limited to the following definitions:

- Cheating: Using or attempting to use unauthorized assistance, material, or study aids in examinations or other academic work.

- Plagiarism: Using the ideas, data, or language of another without specific or proper acknowledgment. Example: using another person's work and using it to submit an assignment/project/lab work, cloning someone else's ideas without attribution, etc.

- Unfair Advantage: Attempting to gain unauthorized advantage over fellow learners in an academic exercise. Example: gaining or providing unauthorized access to examination materials, etc.

edX Honor Code Pledge

By enrolling in this edX course, I agree that I will:

- Complete all tests and assignments on my own, unless collaboration on an assignment is explicitly permitted.

- Maintain only one user account and not let anyone else use my username and/or password.

- Not engage in any activity that would dishonestly improve my results, or improve or hurt the results of others.

- Not post answers to problems that are being used to assess student performance.

Please read the edX Terms of Service ("TOS") and the edX Privacy Policy and Honor Code prior to accessing the course content. These TOS, the Privacy Policy and the Honor Code are agreements (the "Agreements") between you and edX.
